

A revolutionary way for guiding the eyes through text using artificial fixations spots to make reading easier.

As a result, the reader's attention is drawn solely to the highlighted starting letters, leaving the word to be completed by the brain center.

Bionic Reading attempts to foster greater in - depth reading and understanding of textual content in a digital environment dominated by shallow kinds of reading.